Recommendations of the Committee.

We, the undersigned, having been called together by mutual friends to devise some effectual plan to preserve order at the ensuing election, after consulting and exchanging views, have come to the conclusion that all we can do is to give our advice to all parties to use every means to keep down any undue excitement.

We say that no man ought to offer to vote unless he believes he has the right to do so;

That no man should be obstructed in the exercise of the right to vote, in any way; and that the practice of depriving men of the right of voting, whether by fraud, threats, or violence, is alike unjustified, and should not be encouraged.

We recommend that there be no spirituous liquors used on the election day at the places of voting or in the vicinity.

We make these recommendations not in a spirit of dictation, but for the benefit of mutual friends and the preservation of order.

George Vallandigham.

Every Democrat in this county should vote for George Vallandigham on Monday. He has made a gallant canvass and done his whole duty. He has been as true as steel to his party on all occasions, and the Democracy should be true to him, or rather to themselves, for he is fighting their battle. Let no Democrat be deceived in regard to Mr. Rodman. That gentleman, from first to last of this canvass, has proved himself the bitter and unrelenting foe to our candidates and our principles. He has ridiculed and denounced both on every stump in the county. He defied us to give him an opponent, and boasted publicly that if the balance of the Opposition party would second his efforts, he would carry this county by 200 majority against our State and Congressional tickets—against our gallant standard-bearers, Magoffin and Simms!

Let the Democracy of Franklin remember the coarse and unwarrantable assault made upon our State candidates by Mr. Rodman in the court-house on the day he was nominated. What he said of that gallant mountain Democrat, Judge Frazier, our candidate for Register. Let them remember his boasting and defiance, and they will admit he has no claim to the support of a single man who subscribes to the time-honored principles of Democracy and calls himself a Democrat. We trust that the Democracy will vote to a man for Vallandigham.

Adj. Gen. Harlan.

The Opposition, late Know-Nothing, candidate for Congress spoke at the court-house on yesterday to an audience principally composed of sympathizing friends. A few despairing shrieks from the faithful cheered his fainting spirits in this his last appeal to the voters of Frankfort. From all accounts the General dies hard, and indulges in many frantic and spasmodic kicks. He knows that he is beaten—worse beaten than Hanson or any other anti-Democratic candidate that has made a race in the Ashland district since its present organization.

By the way, we heard that the General inquired of his hearers whether they knew a paper called the Yeoman. On Monday evening there will be a general inquiry whether anybody has ever heard of a certain K. N. candidate known as Adjutant General Judge John M. Harlan, Notary Public, &c., and the answer will be No.

Grant Green.

By an oversight an extract from the Paducah Herald, in reference to the election of Auditor, was copied into our last issue without comment. The extract gave it as the opinion of the Democratic Central Committee that Grant Green's election was doubtful. This is an entire mistake. The Central Committee have never entertained a doubt of Mr. Green's election to the office of Auditor by a large majority. The Committee are confident that the entire Democratic State ticket will be elected by a large and decisive majority—such a one as will crush the Opposition beyond the possibility of a resurrection in Kentucky. The Committee believe also that there will be no material difference in the votes for our several State candidates. The Herald was very much mistaken in its information in regard to the opinions of the Central Committee, and spoke without authority.

Attorney General Black's Opinion on the Right of Expatiation.

Previous to the preparation of the recent official letter to our Minister at Berlin, instructing him to demand of the Hanoverian government the surrender of William Ernst, Attorney General Black, at the request of the President, rendered an opinion in the case, maintaining the general right of expatriation as incontestable, and that in regard to the protection of our citizens in their rights, at home and abroad, we have no law which divides them into classes, or makes any difference whatever between them—that a native and a naturalized American citizen may therefore go forth with equal security over every sea and through every land under heaven, including the country in which the latter was born—either of them may be taken for a debt contracted or a crime committed by him, but both are absolutely free from all political obligations to every country but their own. They are both American citizens, and their exclusive allegiance is due to the government of the United States. In Judge Black's opinion the Hanoverian government cannot justify the arrest of Mr. Ernst by showing that he emigrated contrary to the laws of the country, unless it can also be proved that the original right of expatriation depends on the natural sovereign, and this last proposition he is sure no man can establish.

Another Slavery Protectionist in the Field.

Cassius M. Clay has taken the stump for Bell and the Opposition ticket. He is speaking in Kenton and Campbell counties to draw out the Abolition vote for Bell. This move we suppose is in accordance with previous understanding and agreement. He turns out in full time to work for the Opposition, but too late for the people of the State to be apprized of the facts. What a commentary upon the pretended zeal of the Opposition for the protection of slavery! Who can doubt longer "the bargain and intrigue" between the leaders of the Opposition and the Abolitionists of the North when Cassius M. Clay takes the stump for Bell?

Democrats of the Ashland District, are You Ready?

The eyes of the Democracy of the entire State are turned with anxiety to this Congressional District. The Opposition are making the most desperate attempt to wrest this District from us. Democrats, shall they have it? Never, but rather let us double our majority of 1857, and thus place the District forever beyond the grasp of the miserable faction which is now struggling for it.

The struggle is close at hand. Democrats, are you ready?

Below we give the majorities of this (Ashland) Congressional District, in 1857:

	HANSON.	CLAY.
Fayette	389	389
Bourbon	288	288
Woodford	155	155
Franklin	36	36
Jessamine	99	99
Nicholas	183	183
Harrison	196	196
Scott	444	444
	832	832
Clay's majority		126

Work! Work!

Although but a short time remains between now and the election, much good may be done for our ticket between this and Monday. Let every friend of Capt. Simms determine to make one more vote for his candidate before Monday morning, and then do it. Go to work! Work early, work late; work day and night; work all the time!

It is a pleasure to go to the polls and vote for such a ticket as that at the head of our columns. There is not a name upon it that is not an ornament to it. Among them all, there is not a single failure. Vote it through. Don't scratch a single name.

To Democrats.

Every Democrat who is entitled to a vote should go to the polls early on Monday morning and cast it for the entire Democratic ticket. There should be no swapping of votes or "scratching" of tickets.

We have the most cheering news from all parts of the district. Let the Democracy only follow up the advantage they have already gained, and Simms will be elected by a very handsome majority.

One Vote.

We hope that every Democratic voter will realize the vast importance of one more vote. One vote has often turned the scale in important elections and secured the victory. If there is another vote to be had, let us have it.

Gov. R. H. Gholson, of Kentucky, the newly appointed Governor of Washington Territory, had arrived out at San Francisco in excellent health, by the Southern overland route. He was to proceed to Olympia by the first steamer for the Sound.

Vote Early!!

We hope our friends will go to the polls and vote as early in the morning as possible. When you have done that, you will be free to look after the loiterers.

Mr. James Shannon, the eldest son of the widow of the late President Shannon, of Columbus, Mo., was found dead in the field or woods, a short distance from home, about twelve o'clock, on the night of the 20th.

Mr. George Melius, late manager of the Louisville Theater, died in that city on Tuesday evening after a brief but painful illness.

Let the Democracy go to work and work unceasingly till the close of the polls on Monday evening, and a glorious victory will crown their efforts.

Vote of Kentucky, 1856.

* The vote of these counties for 1856 was excluded from the official canvass on account of informality in the returns, and the declared result was Buchanan, 69,569; Fillmore, 63,361. Majority for Buchanan, 6118.

Remember It.

If there are any Democrats who design voting for Thos. S. Page for Auditor they should remember that winter before last, when for the first time, a Democratic assembly assembled in Frankfort, and took the public printing from A. G. Hodges, and gave it to John B. Major, a Democrat. Mr. Page gave printing to Mr. Hodges, for two years, and then, to that extent, thwarting the wishes of the dominant party, and tricking the man who opposed him in politics out of a clear gain of three thousand dollars, and put it in the pocket of a political friend. The Whigs when in power gave the printing to a Whig, and the Know-Nothings did the same thing. It was something that was expected from the dominant party and a change in which everybody acquiesced.

In accordance with the established custom Mr. Major when he went into office was entitled to the printing which Mr. Page gave to a partisan friend. When his party could bestow patronage and favor Mr. Page ran as a party candidate, now when the Democracy are in the ascendant he pleads "past qualifications as the only guarantee that he can offer for the future." Mr. Page is a good officer, but we have no reason to believe that Grant Green will not make as good a one. The Democracy should remember this act of partisan favoritism by Mr. Page, and profit by the lesson it teaches.—Georgetown Gazette.

RETURN OF FUGITIVE SLAVES.—A few days ago sixteen fugitive slaves, who a year or two ago escaped from this State and reached Canada, passed through Cleveland, on their way back to slavery. They had become heartily disgusted with Canadian freedom. The Cleveland Democrat says:

"Old Aunty," a venerable negress, whose black and shining face stood out in strange contrast with her hair—white as the driven snow—took occasion to "speak her mind" in regard to Canada. "D y kin talk about dar freedom o' over dar (pointing with a cane broke finger across the blue water in the gutter) marked by the 'Union's' wake," but I'd a heap better stay with tem down in Old Kentucky." The entire party took the train for Cincinnati, happy in the thought that they were going home.

Capt. Simms and Maj. Breckinridge.

Remember the Barbecue at Reuben Sabree's in the Fork's precinct to-day. It is the last time Capt. Simms will meet his constituents of Franklin before the election, and we understand that Hon. John C. Breckinridge will be in attendance.

Elders Thos. P. Dudley and Jordan H. Walber will preach in Frankfort on Sunday morning next at 11 o'clock.

From the Lexington Statesman.

A Test of Confidence.

We are requested by a gentleman of this city to say he is ready to bet $1,000 that Capt. Wm. E. Simms will be elected as the Representative of this District in the next Congress. Are there any takers?

Important from Europe—The Peace Forced on Napoleon—its Conditions Unsatisfactory—Comments of the Press.

SARASVILLE, N. B., July 27.—Letters from Paris note much discontent there concerning the terms of peace, although the peace itself gave satisfaction.

The Paris Siecle objects to Austrian influence being still suffered to remain in Italy, and calls for the expulsion of petty Italian princes, where they are but confederates of Austria.

Napoleon, on his arrival at Paris, would proceed direct to St. Germain, deferring his official entry into Paris until he makes it at the head of the army.

The Emperor and the King of Sardinia entered Turin on the 15th, amid the enthusiastic acclamations of the people.

The Austrian correspondent officially announces the conditions of the treaty of peace, thus: Austria and France will support the formation of Italian confederations. Lombardy, as far as the line of the Mincio, to be given up. Mantua, Peschiera and the whole of Venetia, remain Austrian possessions. The Princes of Tuscany and Modena return to their respective States. An universal amnesty is granted.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says that three applications were made by Napoleon to Austria before she would consent. Negotiations were made direct by Napoleon for the purpose of preventing the mediations of neutrals.

The same correspondent says the Pope was burned in effigy at Milan, and that unfriendly feelings exist between the Emperor and Victor Emmanuel. The latter had issued a proclamation to the people of Lombardy, announcing their annexation to Sardinia, according to their own desire, many times expressed, and his determination to ameliorate their political condition.

Victor Emmanuel entered Milan on the 13th, amid the enthusiastic plaudits of the citizens.

It is rumored that the Emperor and Empress of the French would visit Vienna.

It is reported that the French army had commenced its counter march.

It is thought probable that the dismissal of Cardinal Antonelli would result from the present state of affairs.

It is rumored that Garibaldi was about to issue a proclamation. It was considered doubtful whether he would lay down his arms.

Up to the 11th the formation of the Hungarian legion had proceeded prosperously, 5,000 having joined.

A letter from Rome, dated the 8th, says the Pope sent an autograph letter to Napoleon announcing his determination to demand the armed intervention from Catholic powers.

ENGLAND.—The House of Commons passed to the second reading of the bill abolishing church rates, by a vote of 263 to 193. Both Houses discussed the treaty of peace.

In the House of Commons, Lord Russell, in answer to an inquiry, said that nothing was known as yet as to the details of the treaty until Napoleon returned to Paris, which would be about the 15th inst.

Sir James Graham called attention to the formidable French fleet at Cherbourg and Brest, together with the gun boats for landing troops.

Russell said that France had made extraordinary preparations, and therefore, England had demanded explanations.

There were Orange riots on the 8th of July in various parts of Ireland; also at Paisley, where affairs became serious. Knives and fire-arms were used. One man was killed, and several wounded dangerously.

LATEST.—It was reported at Paris on Friday that great agitation prevailed at Milan; that trouble had arisen at Venice; that Florence was disturbed; and that the Parisian populace was indignant at the Emperor for his failure to fulfill his promises.

The statement of the Bank of France for July, shows a decrease in cash of over 11,000,000.

Switzerland has ordered the disbandment of her troops, called out during the war.

Prussia has ordered her troops on the march to halt.

The papers were mainly engaged in speculations upon the sudden conclusion of peace and its results.

Letters from Paris assert that much discontent prevailed there in regard to the terms of peace, and the small result of the war, although the peace itself gave general satisfaction.

The Siecle, the organ of the French Liberals, is dissatisfied, and says France will have everything to begin again in a few days, if the minute Austrian influence is permitted in Italy. It calls for the expulsion of the petty Italian Princes, the confederates of Austria.

The Emperor had quitted the seat of war and was en route for France.

The interview between the Emperors at Villa Franca is said have lasted nearly three whole days.

TUZANA, July 14.—The Augsburg Gazette alleges that the cause of the armistice was the existence of a dangerous malady in the French army—but to this we can give a formal denial. The sanitary state of the French army is excellent, and exceeds even the hopes which could be entertained from the heat and fatigue endured.

The King of Sardinia had issued the following proclamation to the people of Lombardy: Heaven has blessed our arms, with those of our powerful and magnanimous ally, the Emperor Napoleon, and we arrived a few days after our victory upon the banks of the Mincio, to tell you that heaven has granted your wishes. An armistice followed. The preliminaries of peace assure the people of Lombardy of their independence, according to their desire many times expressed. You will henceforth form with us an ancient State—one and free family, and take your destiny under my directions. I hope to find in you this concurrence which the chief of a State needs, in order to create a new administration. I tell you, people of Lombardy, to trust in your King, established on a solid and imperishable basis. He will procure happiness for a new government, which Heaven has entrusted to his government.

The Emperor of Austria has ordered an immediate cessation of the recruiting just commenced.

Two days before the armistice a war tax was imposed on Piedmont, amounting to one tenth of all the taxes on property, customs, taxes, &c. It was considered probable that the dismissal of Cardinal Antonelli would result from this state of affairs.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The Duke of Newcastle states that the government did not intend renewing the license by which the Hudson Bay Company held their North American territory.

A bill would soon be introduced appointing magistrates throughout the territory, to prevent disturbances between the Indians and whites, to establish trading regulations and prevent excesses.

The government was not prepared to grant a subsidy for the establishment of railways in the territory.

The new telegraphic cable between England and Denmark had been successfully laid.

The Mediterranean Company had ordered a cable to connect Malta and Sicily, and it is expected to be laid in November.

The Monitor publishes a second warning to the University on account of an objectionable political article.

The Paris Bourse closed at 68 1/2 for money and account, being an advance of 1/2 per cent. During the day they touched nearly 70 per cent. the peace.

NAPOLES.—Additional details of the mutiny of the Swiss troops are received.

A mutiny of troops continued in the barracks, killing the Colonel and several officers of the 4th regiment, and afterwards repaired to the Royal Palace, but we were forced back by the chasseurs and hussars on duty, to the Champ de Mars, where they were surrounded. The Commander-in-Chief of the Swiss called on them to surrender. They replied by a discharge of fire-arms, wounding the General and about 20 privates. Orders were then given to fire on the mutineers, when 75 men were killed and 233 wounded.

ROME.—A Bostonian at the sack of Perugia writes to the London Times giving additional details of that brutal affair. He says the American Minister, Mr. Stockton, has demanded redress and indemnification for the American citizens, and his energetic action will doubtless obtain such as is to be had.

[From the Louisville Democrat.] Letter from Owenenton—The Trial of the Slave Jane for Poisoning her Mistress—An Appeal Taken.

OWENENTON, Ky., July 23, 1859.

MESSES. HARMY, HUGHES & Co. Gentlemen: At a special term of the Owen Circuit Court, held by Judge Moore, of Covington, Ky., which commenced on Tuesday, the 19th inst., was tried the slave Jane, for the poisoning of Mrs. Porter, of Henry county, Ky. She was found guilty, as charged in the indictment, and sentenced to be hanged on the 23rd day of September, 1859. Her counsel made application for a new trial, which was overruled by the Judge.

An appeal was taken in the case to the Court of Appeals. Counsel for the Commonwealth were Messrs. Major, Craddock, Grover, and Selby; for the defense, Col. H. Marshall, Wm. Pryor, and Berryman. The slave Jane belongs to Edward Smith, of Henry county, Ky., and is the same slave that was heretofore sentenced to be hung in Henry county last year, that Judge Nuttall was said to have decided the propriety of hanging upon, in which he decided that sprinkling was legal baptism. Judge Nuttall was here at the trial, but no person took issue with him on the above decision. It is thought and generally believed by all persons who think with the Judge on the same subject, that an appeal cannot be granted, and the judgment therefore stands as affirmed.

Yours, very respectfully, S.

A Word to Foreigners.

All must remember the perfect fury with which Know Nothingism spread over the whole country in 1854-5, and all must also remember how foreigners were persecuted from one end of this broad land to the other.

We wish to remind our naturalized citizens what party it was that arrested the march of this proscription. It was the Democratic party. We also wish to ask our naturalized citizens if they remember who promulgated the principles of the Democratic party. In 1856, Capt. Simms and Gen. Harlan, the present candidates for Congress in this district, were before the people as public speakers, though neither of them were then candidates for office. Capt. Simms advocated, as he advocates now, the principles of the Democratic party. Gen. Harlan was then opposed to the Democratic party, but having found that the people would not swallow Know Nothingism, he pretends to have abandoned his opposition to foreigners, and now calls himself an "Opposition" candidate generally.

Gen. Harlan and Capt. Simms are both candidates
